Amatite ROOFING.

Same Price, Double the Weight—

A good substantial roofing will give you better service than a light flimsy one. The question to consider is how many pounds of protection are you going to have for each hundred square feet of roof?

With Amatite you will get 100 pounds. That is more than double the weight of other roofings at the same price.

Amatite lies solid and snug on your roof. It won't rip off in a gale. Furthermore Amatite is waterproof and its mineral surface needs no painting or coating. Nails and cement free with each roll.

We will be glad to send you a free sample of Amatite on request.

A. F. WISNER will be glad to have your orders for ice of the hardest and best quality. Orders by mail or telephone 227 promptly attended to.

Pond ice delivered as usual.

State of Maine, Laboratory of Hygiene, Augusta, Me., June 1, 1914.

Mr. A. F. WISNER, Rockland, Me.

Dear Sir: The analysis of ice and water, sent to me on May 27, shows that both water and ice are in such condition that they can be used with safety for all domestic purposes at this time. There was no evidence of contact of either water or ice with sewage waste, or with surface wash at this time. The ice will improve over its present bacterial condition with storage. Very truly yours,

H. D. EVANS, Director.

NEWSPAPER HISTORY

The Rockland Gazette was established in 1846. In 1874 the Courier was established, and consolidated with the Gazette in 1882. The Free Press was established in 1855, and in 1891 changed its name to the Tribune. These papers consolidated March 17, 1915.

"No man is good enough to govern another man without the other's consent."

The 19th annual convention of the Maine State Spiritualist Association will be held in Skowhegan, May 15 and 16.

In presenting the budget to the House of Commons Tuesday the Chancellor of the Exchequer David Lloyd George, estimated that if the war lasts during the whole fiscal year, Great Britain's expenditure at that time will amount to $5,682,470,000.

Boston Transcript: The late Charles E. Littlefield had the reputation of being the fastest talker in Congress, the only man who ever taxed the capacity of Sam Gray and Fred Ireland, the highest seared stenographers in the United States, and it might be added that in making a speech he never had to sacrifice quality to speed, either.

"The dealer's license for which he pays an annual fee of $25 is purely and simply for the privilege of purchasing, demonstrating, selling and exchanging automobiles and auto trucks," states Hon. William R. Pattangall of Waterville, the attorney general of Maine, in an opinion rendered Monday, in response to an inquiry from Hon. John E. Bunker of Bar Harbor, the secretary of State.

Dresses of organizes and fine voiles are much in demand, particularly in white and in the various combinations of black and white, such as checks, stripes and polka-dots, according to the Dry Goods Economist. Wash silk dresses, also smart models in Georgette crepe are proving good sellers. Washable taffeta and crepe de chine are often combined with organza, with cotton net and with fine French voile. The Georgette crepes are used with net and with crepe de chine.

"CLEAN UP AND PAINT UP"

This Is What We All Of Us Ought To Be Doing the Present Month.

(Boston Herald)

First in order of the season it was "Batter up!" and now it is "Paint up and Clean up!" Both slogans are infallible tokens of the coming of spring. The one is universally welcomed for its delectable implications; the other will not be quite so welcome to the multitudes but it is at least as important. The one stands for sport and amusement, the other for beauty and safety.

It is time to furbish and scrub, to paper and paint, to cart away rubbish and patch up the gaps in the back-yard fences. The premises once made spick-and-span within and without, there will ensue a sense of righteousness that will be its own reward. Get out the hammer and tinker with the window boxes. Geraniums will bloom at the windows until the late fall and they add a becoming touch of color and a suggestion of refinement to the most densely packed tenement region. Even six by four rectangles of green grass by the front steps will go a long way to transform an ugly house into a handsome one. Thorough attention to sanitary precautions now will save a lot of bad smells, and possibly a good deal of ill health, hereafter. "Clean up and Paint up!"

CHAS. E. LITTLEFIELD

PRESS VOICES GENERAL REGARD IN WHICH STATESMAN WAS HELD.

The press of the country is resounding with praises of the late Hon. Charles E. Littlefield, who, after seven years' retirement from public life, was still freshly in the minds of the people. From the scores of editorial clippings which have come to our attention we quote:

One Of The Foremost Lawyers (Portland Argus)

As a member of his profession Mr. Littlefield enjoyed recognition as one of the foremost lawyers in the land, and since his service in Congress he had been counsel in several important cases. As a private citizen Charles E. Littlefield was admirable.

Few Equals As Debater

Maine was proud of her distinguished son and today sincerely mourns Charles E. Littlefield. That he had sought a broader field for his activities did not remove him from the hearts or the interests of his home people. His size as statesman and star in the legal profession was long ago recognized throughout New England and beyond. He was one of the country's foremost lawyers and had few equals as debater or in analysis of conditions and presentation of facts. He had been classed with Elihu Root in his grasp of international law. In Congress, Representative Littlefield was early recognized as a power to be reckoned with. He was referred to by newspaper writers as "the tall pine from Maine," and when he arose to speak on any question he commanded instant and respectful attention.

"Our Charles E." was notably respected for the enemies he had made. We hope there was no bitterness in his heart for those who stabbed him in the back.

A Notable Achievement

The untimely death of Charles E. Littlefield recalls the great battle over the Porto Rican tariff bill of 1899, which settled for all time one of the most important constitutional questions since reconstruction. We now have free trade with Porto Rico, largely as a result of the stiff fight which he and our own Mr. McCall put up, in adherence to the flag.

Stress Of Modern Life

(Lewiston Journal)

The sudden death of ex-Congressman Littlefield reminds us of what was impressively suggested in what seemed to be the untimely death of Congressman Dingley and ex-Speaker Reed—that the stress and strain of modern life are pressing hard on strong constitutions. All three of these publicists died at little over three-score—and in the order of nature—touching the high and resolute physical assets of New Englanders, and Littlefield, Reed and Dingley should have lived a decade or two longer.

Littlefield and Reed left public life, presumably for similar reasons—to provide a competence to begeth, and as is not accessible in a Congressional career. Mr. Littlefield, Congressman Dingley's successor, brilliantly began his congressional career, making speeches, and Littlefield, Reed and Dingley took issue with Mr. Littlefield's political cult, we did not question his ability or sincerity.

Lesson Of Human Endeavors

(Bath Times)

Not always was Mr. Littlefield's attitude on public questions in accord with the ideas of his constituents, but he was undoubtedly a strong and able and influential Congressman, whose place has never really been filled. Following Dingley, he had a hard task set him to make good, and the extent to which he was successful in his endeavor, and the extent to which his constituents are not really appreciated until they are dead.

An Uncommon Man

(Portland Express)

Charles E. Littlefield was an uncommon man. Naturally gifted, he was unusual in the fact that he was an exceedingly hard worker. So often men with natural gifts depend for their success upon their own genius. Mr. Littlefield did not do that. He was conscientious. When in public life, his course of action was not only above reproach, but above suspicion. As a legislator in Maine, one of the greatest attorney generals of the State, as member of Congress, he signaled his entire public career by his conscientious devotion to duty. And when at last he gave up public life at the height of his fame and returned to his profession as an attorney at law the same qualities which had made him a great public servant, made him a great advocate and counselor.

Should Cherish His Memory

(Boston Transcript)

The late Charles E. Littlefield was a brilliant man. . . . He was a remarkably quick and able debater, and at times an orator of convincing power. Maine should cherish his memory, for he was one of those who gave the State an influence in Congress out of all proportion to the numerical strength, or weakness, of its delegation.

Penny Wise and Pound Foolish

Hard times make every woman look to see where she can save money, which, of course, is sensible and proper if not carried too far.

In the case of food it would be foolish to attempt to substitute sawdust for a breakfast food because it is cheaper. Everyone knows sawdust has no food value and its use would be a positive detriment to the health.

Royal Baking Powder, which is made from cream of tartar, adds only healthful qualities to the food.

The difference in cost of a pan of biscuits or of a cake made with Royal Baking Powder as compared with cheap alum or phosphate of lime powders is about one cent, which is surely too small an amount to warrant the risk.

FIVE PRETTIEST GIRLS

Boston Newspaper Trying To Locate Them—Rockland Girl Enters the Panama-Pacific Tour Contest.

Verona D. Pease, whose portrait appears below, is an entrant from this district for the Boston Traveler Panama-Pacific Tour.

The five prettiest girls of New England, one from each of the four northern states, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont and Massachusetts, and one at large will be sent on a trans-continental tour de luxe as guests of The Boston Traveler and The Boston Sunday Herald.

Every expense will be paid. It will not cost any of the girls chosen a penny from the time she starts until she arrives home. They will travel in luxury. Nothing that will contribute to their comfort and pleasure will be overlooked.

On this tour, the girls will have an opportunity to see all the wonders of the great West and the two Pacific coast exhibitions, the Panama-Pacific fair at San Francisco and the San Diego exposition. They will also be taken to Universal City, that unique community which is devoted entirely to the manufacture of moving picture films.

Every girl of 16 or over is eligible for this competition. All that is necessary is to send her best photograph before May 10 to The Boston Traveler Free Panama-Pacific Tour Bureau accompanied by a properly filled out Entrant's Blank.

Ten people must sign their names and addresses on the Entrant's Blank to vouch that the girl is a bona fide candidate. The slips can be obtained from any newsdealer, from any moving picture theatre wherever Universal Films are shown or from the Free Tour Editor of The Boston Traveler.

In connection with these free tours a further prize of $10,000 will be announced later.

This competition is unprecedented in that there are no votes to gather, no subscriptions to solicit, no involved rules and regulations to stumble over, no "strings" and no "catches." Not a penny of expense will be put on any girl or any of her friends either before, during or after this competition.

SMART BATH CAT

Turns the Faucet After Drinking, and Does Other Stunts.

The Bath Times vouches for this cat story:

"The cat is a resident of Water street and is the pet of a certain office, being owned by a prominent Bath business man, by whom the animal is highly prized. The Times man who happened to call when the cat was up in the sink of the back office and he watched pussy turn on the faucet to obtain a drink of water. After drinking her fill, this remarkable cat did what many humans forget to do, she turned the faucet into its place, stopping unnecessary waste of water. The surprised caller informed the owner of the incident, but the latter was not astonished. He explained that the cat always did that when she wanted a drink. She had picked up the trick all unaided by human intelligence.

"The same cat will pull a cord attached to incandescent lights and snap off the light and will then put them on again, just as she has seen her master do. But this trick she does simply for fun. She is one intelligent pussy."

If you want to surprise the man of the family, next time you hear him complaining that his derby hat is looking shabby, take a clean piece of old muslin, wet it with household ammonia, start at the top of the hat, and work all around the crown in a circle, then around the ribbon and brim, also underneath the brim. The result will surprise you both. The derby, no matter how badly it was faded, will look as black and fresh as when new. This is a secret whispered to me by a worker in a prosperous hat renovating place, but is really too good to keep from others who may be glad to make use of it.—McCall's Magazine.

YOUR FAVORITE POEM

Old-fashioned poetry, but choicely good.—Isaac Walton

A Morning Thought

What if some morning, when the stars were pale,
And the dawn whitened, and the east was clear,
Strange peace and rest fell on me from the presence
Of a benignant Spirit standing near.

And I should tell him, as he stood beside me,
"This is our Earth—most friendly Earth, and fair;
Daily its sea and shore through sun and shadow
Faithful it turns, robed in its azure air."

"There is best living here, loving and serving,
And quest of truth, and serene friendships dear.
But stay not, Spirit! Earth has one destroyer—
His name is Death: flee, lest he find thee here!"

And what if then, while the still morning
Brightened,
And freshened on the elm the summer's head,
Should gravely smile on me the gentle angel
And take my hand and say, "My name is Death!"

PETER McQUEEN'S LECTURE
 Peter McQueen's lecture Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Men's Fraternity filled the Congregational church with an audience that highly enjoyed the talk upon the European war from one who spoke at first hand, having been upon the ground, heard the guns and saw the fields strewn with the dead and wounded. Mr. McQueen is a very interesting speaker, with a dry wit and an eye for the picturesque. He thinks Germany was mad, but he did not withhold praise for what is great and worthy in that people aside from the dominant military rulers. The 200 colored views with which his talk was illustrated greatly added to the enjoyment of the evening. When the portrait of the King of Belgium was flashed on the screen the audience broke into great applause. It is plain to see who is the world's hero in this greatest calamity of all time—it is the king whose innocent country has been butchered by a ruthless neighbor, the king who has lost everything but his honor.

EMPIRE THEATRE
 Friday and Saturday at the Empire, the 3-reel Broadway star feature "The Radium Thieves." "The Mystery of the Tea Damsel"—After the police had vainly endeavored to solve the mystery surrounding the disappearance of Marguerite Wheeler, a young heiress, Ruth, a girl possessing decided detective ability, became interested in the case. As the result of the girl detective's remarkable work, Marguerite Wheeler was restored to her mother three days later. How the girl detective turned the trick will be seen by the patrons of the Empire Monday and Tuesday, when "The Mystery of the Tea Damsel," the next two-act feature of The Girl Detective Series, is shown. In this Kalem series, motion picture "fans" see how detectives work in actual life. Several prominent sleuths who attended a private presentation of "The Mystery of the Tea Damsel," recently, declares that Ruth solves the mystery along exactly the same lines they would pursue if engaged on the case. Be sure you see this production.

CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR
 Hon. Edward W. Wheeler of Brunswick entered the Republican gubernatorial contest yesterday. He served in Gov. Haines' council.

SPRUCE HEAD
 Mrs. R. G. Ingraham and E. G. Williamson of Rockland visited their mother, Mrs. M. A. Williamson, Tuesday.

The officers of Union S. S. were elected April 29—Superintendent, Mrs. C. D. S. Godfrey; assistant, James Cook; secretary, Charles Smith; treasurer, Frank Tower; cradle roll, Mrs. S. L. Simmons.

Mrs. S. L. Simmons was called to Augusta last week by the sudden death of her father, Mr. Carter.

C. P. Morrill, C. H. Carr and L. S. and W. W. Godfrey left Saturday for Hull, Mass., where they are stationed on the U. S. Survey.

W. H. Leach left Saturday for East Freeport where he has employment. His wife and family will join him later.

Mrs. Sidney Waldron and son Orin and wife have been visiting at W. K. Waldron's and calling on friends for a few days past.

Mrs. M. A. Williamson and W. K. Waldron are sick.

Mrs. J. A. Gilchrist is visiting her mother, Mrs. M. A. Williamson.

The remains of the late Sidney Waldron, who died quite suddenly at the home of his son at Roxbury, Mass., Feb. 4, were brought here Tuesday to be laid beside his two sons, Harry and George, in Forest Hill cemetery. Mr. Waldron was the son of Nathaniel and Mehitable Waldron, born at Frankfort, Jan. 2, 1848, one of eight children. He was a charter member of the Granite Cutters N. L. and worked for many years in this vicinity and in Massachusetts. He leaves a widow, three sons and a daughter, all of Massachusetts, and one brother, William Waldron, of this place. The remains were accompanied by his widow and son Orin and wife.

The remains of Nancy, wife of Herbert Meservey, whose death occurred at Thomaston April 27, after a long illness, were brought here April 29 and interred at Forest Hill cemetery beside her two daughters. Her husband and a daughter are left to mourn her loss.

Simple, But Impressive

Was Yesterday's Funeral Service For Former Congressman Littlefield—Ex-Congressman McCall Present.

The remains of former Congressman Charles E. Littlefield were laid at rest in the family lot at Achorn cemetery yesterday afternoon, following a funeral service of marked simplicity and impressiveness. It was the wish of the bereaved ones that there be no public demonstration. Business was suspended during the funeral hour, and all flags, except those on the Federal building, were at half staff, in accordance with Mayor Harrington's proclamation.

The body arrived in this city on the Tuesday afternoon train, and was met at the station by a delegation of prominent citizens. It was accompanied by the widow, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Littlefield, Miss Caroline A. Littlefield, Mrs. Richard S. Ayer, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Horton of Harrison, James E. Rhodes of Hartford, Conn., and Richard A. Rhodes of Portland.

Acting as escort when the body was removed to the Littlefield home on Linwood street were Hon. Fred W. Wight, Mayor C. M. Harrington, ex-Mayor William S. White, ex-Mayor A. H. Jones, ex-Mayor Philip Howard, William A. Hill, Frank H. Ingraham and James E. Rhodes. It is estimated that 500 persons attended the funeral services yesterday afternoon. The Knox Bar Association was present in a body, headed by its president, Hon. Job H. Montgomery of Camden. The ushers were also members of the Bar, Senator Gilford B. Butler, Philip Howard, Alan L. Bird and Frank H. Ingraham. All of the neighboring towns sent large delegations. Many Grand Army men were present, including those of the deceased Congressman. There always existed bonds of closest friendship, and nowhere did Mr. Littlefield have sincerer admirers than the Knox county survivors of the Rebellion.

The remains lay in a casket of mahogany, covered with broadcloth, around which were arranged floral emblems of great number and magnificence.

Those who passed in silent review of the body were impressed with the change which had been wrought in the two weeks that had ensued since he went away from Rockland, a perfect specimen of physical manhood so far as his friends knew.

The service lasted a little less than half an hour, and consisted of scripture reading, prayer and benediction. The officiating clergyman was Rev. C. A. Moore, D. D., of All Souls Congregational church in Bangor, and former pastor of the local Congregational church where Mr. Littlefield worshipped. There was no personal eulogy, except that contained in a prayer of remarkable impressiveness.

This was the family's wish. And no words of eulogy were necessary. The press and people of the whole country have already given utterance to them many times. The deeds and achievements of the dead statesman are their own lasting tribute.

The pall-bearers were C. C. Archibald of New York, a partner in the firm of Littlefield & Littlefield; and five nephews of the deceased—ex-Senator William A. Walker and Edmund P. Walker of Castine, Charles H. Walker of Rockland, James E. Rhodes, 2d, of Hartford and Richard A. Rhodes of Portland.

The committal service was read at Achorn cemetery. The lot in which the burial took place is directly opposite that of Mr. Littlefield's parents, and has but one other occupant, Mr. Littlefield's first-born child—a son.

Prominent among the mourners at yesterday's funeral was Hon. Samuel W. McCall who was a Congressional contemporary of Mr. Littlefield, from the 8th Massachusetts district. Mr. McCall and Mr. Littlefield represented the strongest types of independent workers in Congress, and stood shoulder to shoulder on many of those measures which were uppermost in the public mind during their stay at Washington. Last year Mr. McCall was the Republican candidate for governor of Massachusetts.

George W. Norton, editor of the Portland Express-Advertiser, attended the funeral as official representative of the National Temperance Association. He is one of the best known newspaper men in the State, and was one of Congressmen Littlefield's staunchest admirers and supporters.

The State was represented by Messrs. Seates, Cunningham and Lawry of the governor's council, and by John P. McConville, the governor's private secretary.

No public man in the country felt the death of Mr. Littlefield more keenly than the Massachusetts statesman. "We were the closest of friends during our stay in Congress," said Mr. McCall to The Courier-Gazette, "and the attachment which I formed for him in those years was strengthened as time went on. The country lost one of its ablest champions when he retired from Congress, where he displayed a knowledge of constitutional law that was not equalled in the House while I was there. His independence and fearlessness were always on the side of right, as he saw it, and many able men who voted against him have since admitted that he was right. Your city has met with a greater loss than you can possibly realize."

CAMDEN
 Mrs. Frederick Gilbert and daughter Natalie of Utica, N. Y., arrived Tuesday and have opened their cottage for the season.

Miss Fannie Dutton left Wednesday for San Diego, Calif., where she will visit her brother Noah.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Wardwell arrived Wednesday evening from Boston, returning from the South where they spent the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Kenniston are spending the week in Portland. W. S. Mero is spending a few days in Brooks.

The Board of Trade held a very pleasant meeting Tuesday with Messrs. McDonald and Sykes of Portland as speakers, who gave interesting accounts of the coming Maine exhibition to be held in Portland June 1 to 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyons are in town looking over their summer property and getting it in readiness for the season.

A large audience greeted the Camden high school scholars at their fair and entertainment in the opera house Wednesday afternoon and evening. The program was especially interesting and deserves a great deal of praise. The financial results were very satisfactory and all felt that the entertainment was especially good. The dancing of the minut and the other dancing deserved special mention.

A. O. Pillsbury is spending a few days in Portland.

Mark Ingraham is improving rapidly from his recent operation.

The jubilee anniversary outing of the Roger Conant family association will be held this year at Salem, June 19. All descendants are invited to attend and all information may be mailed before June 1 to Hamilton S. Conant, secretary, 222 Ford building, Boston.

Regular meeting of Maiden Cliff Rebekah Lodge will occur Wednesday evening, May 12, Virginia L. Holbrook assembly, and Edith Farnham, marshal, will be present. As these sisters have before visited here it is hoped all the members will avail themselves of this opportunity of again greeting them. A pleasant entertainment will be given and refreshments served. A cordial invitation is extended to all sojourning Rebekahs to attend. Let all the members attend and give the president a royal reception.

THE WAR IN EUROPE

The battle in West Galicia, launched a few days ago with an Austro-German attack from the Cracow region, has developed into one of the greatest encounters of the war. Petrograd dispatches admit that the situation is a very serious one. Vienna reports 50,000 Russian prisoners taken.

Reports of constant progress on the part of the allied forces in the Dardanelles were contradicted in an official statement from the Turkish War Office yesterday, but dispatches from French and British sources said further successes have been won by the allies.

Rome, Vienna and Berlin advices indicated that a crisis had come in the negotiations between Italy and Austria. In Rome, where it had been felt of late that war was inevitable, there has been a sudden revival of hope for peaceful settlement.

CITY COUNCIL ECHOES

Doings of the May Session, Crowded Out of Our Tuesday Issue.

Additional specials were appointed by Marshal Fernald and confirmed by the board: Charles Nye, Fred M. Blackington, Hiram Rivers, George Adams, Edgar G. French and Frank M. Sherer. Most of the appointees are on duty as watchmen.

That the police were strictly on the job last month is shown by the fact that there were 70 arrests, 68 of them being for drunkenness. The receipts of the police department were $480. Activities in the Street Department have hardly begun. Commissioner Simmons expended only $469.48 last month. City Clerk Veazie's receipts were $150.

It's the rag end of Collector Donohue's year, but he collected $415 last month, making his total $149,907.58.

The overseers of the poor gave 182 orders on the city store. There were 20 persons in the almshouse at the end of the month.

The monthly roll of accounts showed a total of $2474.

Small electric lights are much in demand in those communities which are not favored by arcs. Orders presented Monday night call for four incandescents; one near R. J. Mayhew's on the old County road; one near the Grand Achorn place; one at the foot of Maverick street, and one on Camden street. The orders will be considered by the Lighting Committee.

J. R. Flye was granted permission to place a gasoline tank and pump in front of his garage on South Main street.

An order for an ash walk on Broadway between Pleasant and Berkeley streets, was passed.

The Highway committee recommended the construction of a concrete walk on Village street, from Union street to the Hebrew Synagogue.

A petition for 250 feet of sewer on Grace street, westerly from Broad street, was referred to the Sewer committee.

An order for a concrete sidewalk on Broadway, between Granite and Rankin streets, was referred to the Highway committee.

The American Hook & Ladder "declined with thanks" the city council's request that it resume quarters in the Spring street armory, which had been its home for many years. The firemen say that the place is neither fit nor safe, and they're not going back. So there now!

The municipal officers held their annual meeting as a licensing board Monday night, granting the following permits:

HOTPOINT SPECIAL

WEEK OF MAY 3-8

The Hotpoint Electric Company has been the leader in Electric Irons for ten years. Each year they make a special offer on their electric products for one week. We, with ten thousand other companies, are in this one week campaign. Many have already taken advantage of the special prices and we had to duplicate our orders several times.

The EL GRILSTOVO reduced from $5.00 to $3.35
 The ELECTRIC IRON " " $3.50 to $3.00

The Hotpoint Company's new invention is the Ovenette, and in connection with the Grilstovo, it performs to its capacity, all the cooking operations of the range oven and without smoke, odor or labor. It can be easily attached to any lamp socket. Complete information regarding this novel appliance can be obtained at our display rooms.

May 28—Limerock Valley Pomona Grange meets with Westview Grange, South Thomaston.
May 29—Annual parish meeting of the First Baptist church.
June 24—Knox County W. C. T. U. convention in Rockland.

Miss Esther Harrington is employed at E. H. Grier's store.

Mother's Day will be observed in the Rockland churches Sunday.

The Elks May meeting will be held Monday night, preceded by a hot supper.

Rockland skaters will attend the masquerade carnival at Belfast next Monday night.

The Ladies' Relief Corps is to serve a dandelion green dinner at Grand Army hall Thursday.

The Home for Aged Women Society meets next Wednesday at 3 p. m. with Miss Lucy Farwell, Summer street.

John A. Hosmer, lately back from the Pacific coast, has resumed his duties in the freight department at Tillson wharf.

Fred S. Collamore has moved to his farm opposite Oakland siding, his home on Brewster street having been leased to Mrs. Carrie Kenyon.

The Boston boats are on their six-trip schedule. Passenger travel has not become very brisk yet, but the boats are hauling lots of freight.

The Quarter-Century Traveling Men's Association meets at Riverton today. Fred W. Wright of this city is president. A large attendance was expected.

Miss Margaret Kallioh is engaged as pianist at the Empire Theatre, succeeding Mrs. Albert R. Marsh, who has accepted the position for some time.

The Sons of Veterans held another big session Wednesday night, and heard a fine address by Hon. Halbert P. Gardner. A full report will appear in Tuesday's issue.

W. C. French, the marketman, is putting on a Ford motor truck for delivery purposes. The car was purchased from Manager Davis of the Overland agency, who has also sold to N. G. Starrett of Warren the Ford car formerly owned by Dr. G. L. Crockett.

Miss Elizabeth Butler, a former employee of Fuller-Cobb Co., gives a recital in the Baptist church at Thomaston next Wednesday night. Miss Butler is a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music, and soon leaves for the West, where she will conduct a studio.

F. S. Sherman, superintendent of the Eastern Steamship Corporation, is driving a classy chestnut mare which once belonged to the Vanderbilt stables in New York. She was presented to Mr. Sherman by President Cabin Austin, who well knows his fondness for a good driving horse.

A close contest is looked for on the Broadway ground tomorrow afternoon when Camden High and Rockland High meet for the first time this season. Camden has been beaten by Thomaston, and Rockland has been beaten by Belfast, so that each team will be on its best behavior tomorrow.

Few persons have passed the Haskell fruit store the last few days without pausing to inspect the giant lobster claw hanging in the south window.

The claw was taken from an 18-pound lobster, brought from New Scotland in one of A. C. McLean & Co.'s smacks. The wonder is that any lobster can attain such size in these days of strenuous fishing.

The Rebekah District Assembly will be held in Odd Fellows hall next Tuesday. The business session in the afternoon will be presided over by the president of the State Assembly, Virginia Holbrook, and the degree will be conferred by Maiden Cliff Lodge of Camden. In the evening there will be an entertainment consisting of music, readings, drills, etc.

Virgie F. Studley moved yesterday into his handsome new bungalow near the corner of Main and Broad streets. Mr. and Mrs. Studley are being congratulated upon the possession of one of the most attractive homes in the city. Mr. Studley is in the furniture business, which he has developed from a small beginning into one of Rockland's most thriving mercantile establishments.

There will be special musical features at the annual meeting of the Gloucester Social Center tonight at 7.30. The public is invited. Clarence Pendleton will sing. There will also be music by a quartet. A branch library, with Mrs. Sylvester Smith at the Gloucester postoffice as assistant librarian, is supplying reading matter to any resident of Rockport over 12 years of age who will call for it.

Members of Knox Lodge, Rockland Encampment and Miriam Rebekah Lodge, I. O. O. F., are requested to meet at their hall, 400 Main street, about 10 o'clock Sunday morning, May 9, for the purpose of attending in a body the service at Galilee Temple, 31 Water street. The pastor, Rev. E. S. Ufford, will preach an appropriate sermon concerning the laws, customs, traditions and principles of Odd Fellowship. Sojourning members of the order are invited to join.

There were many other attractions in the city Wednesday night but in spite of them there was a large attendance at the baseball meeting in the Colonial Club's headquarters. A lively interest is being shown by Rockland and Thomaston, and if Camden will get into gear there will probably be a league, with Belfast as the fourth member. In anticipation of such a league the Colonial Club is making ready to enclose the Broadway grounds, and to this end will make a canvass of the city today and tomorrow for funds. All who want good summer sport and feel that they can afford to chip toward the fence are urged to do so.

The district meeting of District 17 of Rebekahs will be held with Miriam Lodge, Rockland, Tuesday afternoon and evening, May 11. Supper will be served at 6. The president, vice president, warden and marshal of the Rebekah Assembly will be present. In the afternoon there will be a general discussion of the work and questions answered by the grand officers, also a memorial service for the deceased sisters and brothers. In the evening the degree will be conferred by the staff of Maiden Cliff Lodge of Camden. It is hoped there will be a large delegation of Rebekahs at both sessions. All are cordially invited to supper.

After spending a very pleasant winter here the new register is convinced that Rockland isn't half as bad as he has sometimes heard it painted. In fact he rather likes us.

Everybody calls it a backward spring, but Charles T. Spear planted 1800 feet of sweet peas nine days earlier than he put the seed into the ground last year. Fearful that the seed had perished in the cold and wet, he investigated yesterday and found that they were sprouting nicely. He will plant 1200 feet more when the ground settles.

THE ROAD TO HAPPINESS

William Hodge, that unique interpreter of the native American type of character who made "The Man from Home" so famous, is to introduce his host of local admirers to his latest theatrical production, "The Road to Happiness," at the Rockland Theatre one night only on Tuesday, May 11th. All who enjoyed the quaint humor and droll shrewdness of his Daniel Voorhees Pike in the Bostonian parody drama will be eager to see his latest impersonation of Jim Whitman, declared to be "a sort of younger brother of Pike." The part is said to be even more delightful in native originality and wit than Pike. All four acts of this "cheery comedy of optimism," as it is described, takes place in a small village community of Upper New York State and young Whitman is seen sking out his livelihood day by day as a jack-of-all trades but ambitiously studying law at night. The youth of Abraham Lincoln is re-created to a certain extent in the character—the Lincoln of rail-splitting days. "The Road to Happiness" ran for a year in Chicago and has been enjoying a record run in Boston throughout the present season from which city it is coming practically direct to this town—adv.

JOSIAH W. CLARK, JR.

Josiah W. Clark, Jr., died early Tuesday morning at the home of his sister, Mrs. Arthur Kallioh, Thomaston, after a long illness. In the early winter Mr. Clark went to Hebron where he hoped to gain health and strength, but finding all efforts futile, and realizing his hopeless condition, he returned home about three weeks ago. Deceased was born 43 years ago in South Thomaston, the son of Josiah W. and Louise (Wiley) Clark. He was a skilled stone-cutter. Quiet and unassuming he was liked by all who knew him and will be greatly missed in the family circle. Besides his parents, Mr. Clark leaves two brothers, Frank and Webster Clark of Thomaston; and three sisters, Mrs. G. Edgar Wilson and Mrs. Arthur Kallioh of Thomaston, and Mrs. J. B. Silvery of Brooklyn. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Hutchins of the Baptist church officiating. The floral tributes were many and beautiful. The interment was in the family lot at Wiley's Corner, St. George. The pall-bearers were George Starrett, Alex. Wilson, Mr. Watts and Mr. Newbert.

THE BOWLERS

STREET RAILWAY CHANGE OF TIME

The construction of the new siding at the Hoboken schoolhouse, which was undertaken in the belief that its use will shorten the running time of all cars on the main line between Camden and Thomaston. The work has just been completed and the experiments tried the past week demonstrate that its purposes have been successful.

The management of the corporation feels that it is now safe and wise to adopt a new time schedule for week days, similar to the one in effect on Sundays only since December, 1914. This will go into effect May 10. The public can help make this improvement possible by promptness in taking cars. Full schedule will appear in the next issue of this paper.

NICE TESTIMONIAL FOR GRAPHINOIL PRODUCT

Graphin oil, the new transformed graphite lubricant which is being pushed in this territory by Gonia & Baker, is receiving high praise from the users as an economical and motor-saving lubricant. The following has been received by the concern over the signature of Orrin F. Corson, a well known Boston driver:

"I wish to let you know of the wonderful success I have had with graphin oil. My consumption for city work, where the motor is running idle a large part of the time is one pint to 300 miles. I started using graphin oil Jan. 12 last, and on the second day I noticed a marked increase in the power of the motor, also in its increased acceleration. Last February I put your No. 5 non-fluid in my transmission and rear axle housing, and find that it gives me a very quiet and smooth running car."

NOTICE

Sealed bids will be received by the School Board of Thomaston until Wednesday, May 12, 1915, at 12 o'clock noon, for the Meadow School Building and Lot, and the Oyster River School Building and Lot, both of which are located in the town of Thomaston. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

Dogs Must Be Licensed On Or Before May 9, 1915.

DOG LAW

Acts and resolves 1909. Section 3.—Every owner or keeper of a dog more than four months old shall annually, before the first day of April, cause it to be registered, numbered, described and licensed for one year from the first day of April, in the office of the clerk of the city, town or plantation where said dog is kept, and shall keep around its neck a collar distinctly marked with the owner's name and its registered number, and shall pay said clerk for license the sum of one dollar and fifteen cents for each male dog and each female dog incapable of producing young, and five dollars and fifteen cents for each other female dog, and a person becoming the owner of a dog after the first day of April not duly licensed shall cause it to be registered, numbered, described and licensed as provided above. Every owner or keeper of dogs, kept for breeding purposes, may receive annually a special kennel license authorizing him to keep such dogs for said purpose. When the number of dogs so kept exceeds ten, the fee for such license shall be ten dollars. When the number of dogs so kept exceeds ten, the fee for such license shall be twenty dollars, and no fee shall be required for the dogs of such owner or keeper under the age of six months. Dogs covered by the kennel license shall be exempted from the provisions of this section requiring registration, numbering or collaring.

Sec. 5.—Whoever keeps a dog contrary to the provisions of this act shall forfeit ten dollars, five of which shall be paid to the complainant and five to the treasurer of the city, town or plantation in which such dog is kept.

Sec. 6.—The Mayor of each city shall . . . annually, within ten days from the first day of May, issue a warrant to one or more police officers or constables directing them to proceed forthwith either to kill or cause to be killed all dogs within such city . . . not licensed and collared according to the provisions of this act, and to enter complaint against the owners or keepers thereof; such officers shall receive from the city two dollars for each dog so killed. All bills for such services shall be approved by the Mayor of the city.

On May 10th a warrant will be issued to the proper officers to kill or cause to be killed dogs not licensed and collared according to the provisions of the law.

Licenses issued by City Clerk, at the City Clerk's office on Spring street.

DEMOCRATIC ADMINISTRATION

Showing How It Has Further Failed With Revision of the Tariff.

Washington, May 4.—One of the classic blunders of the present administration is now before the Court of Customs Appeals, and a decision is looked for at an early date.

The court is expected to interpret the meaning of the provision in the Underwood tariff bill proposing to give a five per cent discount in customs duties on merchandise imported in American vessels. Thus far that clause has failed in its purpose, just as the tariff measure of which it is a part failed to provide adequate revenue. Enacted Oct. 13, 1913, it failed on its first test, and that test applied, too, by the then Attorney General less than 30 days after the bill was signed.

No sooner had the tariff bill been presented to the Secretary of the Treasury for administrative issue than a doubt arose in his mind as to the validity of the five per cent discount provision. He appealed for advice to Attorney General McReynolds, who is now on the Supreme bench. The provision was pronounced inoperative.

"The five per cent discount to American vessels cannot be given," is the language of the Attorney General, and the stipulations of existing treaties between the United States and various other powers, and consequently the subsection is inoperative."

Acting on this opinion the Secretary of the Treasury issued an order to customs collectors, instructing them to make no allowance of discount on duties under this provision. Importers who had relied on the law appealed to the Board of General Appraisers. Their ruling resulted in further confusion, and neither side being satisfied, the case was taken to the Court of Customs Appeals, more than a year after the law had passed.

The Democratic committee report on the five per cent provision defined it as "a discrimination in favor of American shipping, designed to build up our merchant marine and keep at home millions of dollars now being paid to foreign vessels to carry our products to foreign markets."

Yet although they fully realized the tremendous importance of this measure, which they said involved millions of dollars, they failed to see the need to consult their own Attorney General as to the possibility of enacting it into law. They had a vague idea of what they wanted, adopted a vague method of trying to secure it, and by careless guess work threw the whole matter into the courts.

Furthermore, even if the principle of discrimination had not been questioned by the Attorney General, the provision was so clumsily drafted that three different interpretations have been placed upon it. Counsel for the importers claimed another, and the Board of General Appraisers furnish a third different from all.

During the debate in Congress on this provision, Republican members repeatedly warned the Democrats that, unless they secured the necessary majority to carry their policy, it was meaningless and should be corrected to become effective.

It was so much breath wasted. The majority stubbornly refused to accept either caution, suggestion or amendment. The result has been that this very important clause has thus far proven mere useless verbiage, except to cause litigation and expense to all concerned. About the only purpose it has served is to emphasize the fact that the inefficient methods of Democratic legislators have made it impossible for them to put even their own ideas into effect.

EFFECT OF CLIMATE ON WORK

Observation Has Shown That It Has Much Influence on One's Capacity.

In Connecticut the effect of changes of temperature from day to day is about half as great as the effect of the changes from season to season. If the temperature remains unchanged people work slowly. If it rises they may be stimulated a little. If it falls, on the other hand, provided the fall is not excessive, there is a decided stimulus. The effect of constant changes of weather may be compared to that produced upon a horse by a good driver. If the animal is allowed to go his own gait, with no stimulus whatever, he will travel fast at first and then settle down to a slow pace which will protract a journey indefinitely. If he is constantly urged to his topmost speed he may make the first journey quickly, but he will soon break down. The wise driver urges him for a short time and then lets him go more slowly. By constantly repeating this process he gets good speed from his animal, and yet prevents him from becoming exhausted. This is what constant changes of temperature seem to do to man. Therefore, in reckoning the value of any climate from the point of view of efficiency, storms must be rated as of high value. If they alone were the controlling element southern Canada, from Alberta eastward, would possess the best climate in the world, while the northern United States, from the Dakotas and Nebraska eastward, the northwestern part of Europe, northern Italy and Japan would come next. England, it will be noticed, is the only country included both in the regions just mentioned and in those where the mean temperature of the seasons approaches the ideal—Harper's Magazine.

REALLY NOT SO VERY CRAZY

Man With Money to Invest Might Have Made Big Profits—Many Cases on Record.

A man entered a picture gallery the other day and said:

"I've got $100,000 that I want to spend in the encouragement of native art. I want to buy paintings by unknown painters of talent. This will help the painters along, and, if I choose wisely, it will be a good investment for me. I put myself in your hands."

Needless to say the dealer was more than pleased.

"You're a wise man and a good man," he muttered, and he had already chosen for his patron 130 canvases, valued at $67,000, when a uniformed keeper entered. The patron was, alas! insane.

But, dear reader: ere you smile, stop and ask yourself if that lunatic's proposition was so very lunatic, after all.

Men go daily to their bankers with sums far greater than $100,000; they ask their bankers to choose investments for them; and the bankers choose N. G., which later on drops 70 points; and P. D. R., which drops 37 points; and New Haven, which drops 150 points; and S. O. H., which drops 150 points. Yet the action of these men is not deemed insane and nobody dreams of smiling at it.

Why smile, then, at the lunatic's action? The lunatic a score of years ago could have spent his $100,000 on Whistlers at $50 or $75 that are now worth $20,000; on Innesses at $100 that have risen to $5,000; on Sisleys at $150 that easily fetch $7,500.—New York Tribune.

Don't Hide Them With a Veil. Remove Them With The Othine Prescription.

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear beautiful complexion that it is sold by pendleton drug store or any other druggist under guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of Othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength Othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.

FARMER'S WIFE TOO ILL TO WORK

A Weak, Nervous Sufferer Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Kasota, Minn.—"I am glad to say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done more for me than anything else, and I had the best physician here. I was so weak and nervous that I could not do my work and suffered with pains low down in my right side for a year or more. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now I feel like a different person. I believe there is nothing like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weak women and young girls, and I would be glad if I could influence anyone to try the medicine, for I know it will do all and much more than it is claimed to do."—Mrs. CLARA FRANKS, R. F. D. No. 1, Maplecrest Farm, Kasota, Minn.

Women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should be convinced of the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health by the many genuine and truthful testimonials we are constantly publishing in the newspapers.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

APPLETON RIDGE

Mrs. Elizabeth Sprawl who has been caring for her mother, Mrs. Chloé Mills of South Hope, returned to her home Sunday.

Arthur Sprawl is driving the Ridge route for the Turner Creamery, making three trips a week from here to Union.

Mrs. Ida Evans of Ellsworth is housekeeper for Dr. Fred Collins.

William O. Collins of Augusta is visiting his father, F. Collins.

Mr. Quimby, representative of the Maine Farmer, was at Elmer E. Sprague's a few days during the recent storm.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Pitman, accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. Keller observed their sixth wedding anniversary by taking an auto trip to Rockland, and taking in the theatre in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Newbert and Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Pitman attended the funeral of Walter Luce of Washington April 26.

Palmer Martin recently sold a pair of work horses to Rockland parties. Mr. Martin made a trip to Palermo last week after two power boats that had been built by Mr. Turner of that place and will take them to Tenant's Harbor as soon as the weather permits.

Miss Lillian Towle was the guest of Mrs. Callie Fuller last week.

Mrs. Fay Frost is visiting her brothers Hiram and John Burgess in Belfast.

Miss Ada Sprawl who has been working in Belfast is at home.

Miss Maud S. Fuller has resumed her duties as teacher of the North Appleton school after a suspension of two weeks owing to the measles epidemic.

About 20 cases of measles have developed here on the Ridge during the past three weeks. All are now convalescent and school will probably commence next Monday.

FREEDOM

Mrs. Frank Thurston and her mother, Mrs. Wilson of Lewiston, are visiting at P. D. Thurston's.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Adams, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Overlock and two children were Sunday visitors at W. A. Overlock's.

The much prayed for rain has arrived and everybody has plenty of water now.

We think no one will care whether the article referred to in the Liberty correspondent's riddle fits us or not; and we will not be in any condition to kick if it does not fit, when it comes our time to use it, as we all must.

Ralph Overlock has laid away his faithful old horse, Prince.

P. A. Greeley is doing some saving at his mill.

George Turner has had one side of the roof of his barn covered with roofing. R. L. Overlock and Almon did the job.

O. B. Ward, road commissioner, has been making repairs on the highway in this vicinity.

It would seem by the way our few remarks in The Courier-Gazette recently on the chicken question are being copied into other papers that the mystery must be solved soon. Let the good work go on.

THE PRICE OF SUCCESS

Many people pay a terrible price for success, sacrificing to it health and happiness. Neurasthenia, typically American disease, is due to worry over the struggle for success more than to any other one thing.

Neurasthenia is a condition of nervous exhaustion in which the system fails to recuperate after unusual demands upon its nervous energy. Its symptoms are over-sensitiveness, irritability, a disposition to worry over trifles, headache, possibly nausea.

The treatment is one of nutrition of the nerve cells, requiring a non-alcoholic tonic. As the nerves get their nourishment from the blood the treatment must be directed towards building up the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills act directly on the blood and with proper regulation of the diet have proved of the greatest benefit in many cases of neurasthenia. A tendency to anemia, or bloodlessness, shown by most neurasthenic patients, is also corrected by these tonic pills. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Begin the treatment today before your condition becomes chronic.

Two useful books "Diseases of the Nervous System" and "What to Eat and How to Eat" will be sent free by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., if you mention this paper.

NORTH WARREN

The death of Mrs. Lizzie Wentworth Merriam, wife of Charles B. Merriam, occurred Saturday, May 1, as the result of a shock of paralysis sustained a few days previous.

Mrs. Merriam was a native of Appleton, but had resided in North Warren for the past 19 years. During a large portion of this time she suffered much from ill health, so of necessity she lived a rather retiring life, and was obliged to give up in a large measure the social life she so enjoyed, but she bore it all cheerfully, and the friends who have had the privilege of being entertained at her home will ever remember her smiling welcome and cordial hospitality.

Mrs. Merriam was a woman of pleasing personality, a model home keeper, devoted and affectionate in her family, loyal and sympathetic as a friend, and charitable to all, speaking only of the good traits in others, rather than of their faults. She was much beloved by her family and by the friends who knew her best and she will be deeply mourned by them. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved family—the husband, three daughters (Mrs. Nina Winchenbach and Miss Lottie C. Merriam of North Warren, Mrs. Fronia Hanson of New York), and a son, Wilson L. Merriam of Union. She is also survived by three sisters—Mrs. Margaret Crockett of Ash Point, Mrs. Gilbert Thompson of Rockport and Mrs. A. P. Burton of Thomaston, and a brother, Nevell Wentworth of Appleton. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning from her late home.

TENANT'S HARBOR DAYS

Of Spring-Come When Boys Go Barefoot and Swim Early.

(CXLII)
In the Boston Herald of April 25 was a picture of four boys, barefooted, seated against a fence, while one of them is holding, "Oh, Skin-nay! Yoo-Hoo! Barefooted!"

Say, you old codgers, doesn't that carry you back forty years or so, when you were doing the same thing? Those copper-toed cow-hide boots had gotten pretty well worn out by the middle of April. You were anxious to get your feet out and give them a chance to grow. Of course you had run out in the snow two or three times during the winter, just to show that you dare do it. But now the time had come when you could really go barefoot. Had you been obliged to do so, it would have been another question. It was a little hard on the feet at first and big toes done up in a rag were common sight, but you soon got used to it and could walk upon most anything but broken glass without injury to your feet. My! but didn't they get dirty—and were beside if you sneaked off to bed without giving them a wash!

Why is it that a boy will go in swimming in the coldest water and seem to enjoy it, but will set up such an awful howl when his neck and ears are washed at home? About this time of the year the Tenant's Harbor boys were beginning to hang around "the creek," with longing eyes, waiting for the water to warm up so that they could get into it. Finally one fellow would say to another:

"Better doesn't go in!"
"Better I don't!"
This would go on until some brave lad removed his clothes and dashed in. Then the gang followed.

Forty years ago, and for that matter today, bathing facilities at home in the country were not what you will find in an up-to-date city.

A friend was telling me that in the town where he was born in western Massachusetts, some forty or more years ago the question came up in town meeting of a water supply. One good citizen, a man of education too, opposed it very strenuously.

"Why, Mr. Moderator, this idea of bringing water into our houses in pipes is absurd. Some even speak of having bath-rooms, so you can take a bath anytime. Why, sir, in the summer you can go down to the river and take a bath. In the winter you don't need it!"

I have a sort of notion that that was the way with some of us boys. We were getting our first real bath since we lost our swimming in the fall. We were vigorous and healthy, in spite of the lack of a weekly scrubbing. The lure of the old place is getting in my blood again, or is coming to be, these spring days. The days are getting longer and I recall those days of bow and arrow, chasing Indians up in the Murphy woods—L-spy, kick-stick and clam, in the early evenings. The founders are coming out of the mud. I'll get my flower spear and bottle of oil ready and go out and spear a few.

Dream on old man, dream on. You'll do nothing of the kind. You'll get up at 5:30 a. m., and do the chores and take the 7:37 train for the busy city. And be glad that you're going to get the 5:31 train to the suburbs again. Never mind—these trips back to boyhood can only cost a little time to write them out anyway. It's good fun doing it.

"Cheerily, then, my little man, Live and laugh as boyhood can; Ah, that'll cheer you, my joy, Ere it passes, barefoot boy!"

The editor has my thanks for procuring and printing the complete words of "Lord Lovell" alluded to in my article printed April 16. My recollection is that the line as you print it:

"And the people all running around,"

"And the people all mourning around."

That seems to be the sense of it. Sorry you didn't have Brother Otis sing it. It's a beautiful song—or was when Dick Marx sang it.

Boze.

Swish! Corns Gone!

We Use "GETT-IT!"

2 Seconds, 2 Drops—Corns Vanish!

For everybody with corns, there is in every drug store in the land one of the real wonders of the world, and that's "GETT-IT!" For corns! It's the first and only corn-cure ever known that removes any and every corn and callus without fail, without fussing with thick bandages, toe harnesses, corn-swalling salves, irritating ointments. It's applied in 2 seconds—bing—ding—drop, the work is done, the corn shrivels up, your corn agony ends and the corn leaves forever! All the limping, the pains that dart to your heart's core, the crucifixion of having to wear shoes over screaming corns, the danger of blood poison from making them bleed by using knives, razors and scissors—are gone at last! "GETT-IT!" is the new way, the sure, simple, painless way. Try it for corns, calluses, warts and bunions.

"GETT-IT!" is sold by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

Kisses for Health.

A doctor, commenting on the healthfulness of kissing, stated that though many health reasons have been given why one should not indulge in a kiss, little has been heard of the other side.

"The main health reason," he said, "is that it acts like magic in soothing down irritable nerves. Take, for instance, if, on arriving home, you find your wife's temper rather high. A prompt and affectionate kiss will dispel it, and at the same time save you from a nerve-racking Mrs. Caudle lecture across the tea table.

"Again, one of the children is peevish. A mother's kiss here will more often than not soothe down the child's nerves. A kiss acts in some peculiar way on our nervous system, and it in voluntarily responds by making us cheerful.

"A kiss, when installed in bed, will send the children off into the pleasant sleep, and if dreams come they will be pleasant rather than horrible and gloomy."

NOT ENOUGH CHILDREN

ever receive the proper balance of food to sufficiently nourish both body and brain during the growing period when nature's demands are greater than in mature life. This is shown in so many pale faces, lean bodies, frequent colds, and lack of ambition.

For all such children we say with unmistakable earnestness: They need Scott's Emulsion, and need it now. It possesses in concentrated form the very food elements to enrich their blood. It changes weakness to strength; it makes them sturdy and strong. No alcohol.

EASTERN STEAMSHIP AFFAIRS

Company's Problem is to Provide Proper Working Capital—Earnings Satisfactory So Far This Year.

The Boston News Bureau says:

The directors of the Eastern Steamship Co. first mortgage bonds due May 1 are not being paid. This is the second coupon on these bonds to be in default.

However, there is every reason to hope that within a very few days at the most arrangements will have been perfected for taking up both the November, 1914, and the May, 1915, coupons.

Of the $5,858,000 Eastern Steamship Corporation first and refunding bonds outstanding, practically 60 per cent have been quietly deposited with the Old Colony Trust Co., depository, at the request of a committee organized to look after and protect the interests of the owners of such bonds. The committee consists of Philip Stockton, Galen L. Stone and W. Perry Curtis. Mr. Curtis is vice president of the Union & New Haven Trust Co., New Haven, which is the trustee under the indenture of the New England Navigation Co., made to secure its $20,000,000 issue of notes of May, 1914. This committee represents practically the entire issue of corporation bonds, excepting the large block held by the Billard interests. This block of bonds amounts to $1,700,000 par value, but there is no doubt that the owners will act in cordial co-operation in any plan of reorganization.

At the request of the committee above named, the Old Colony Trust Co., trustee under the Eastern Steamship Corporation first mortgage, will immediately start foreclosure proceedings under that mortgage.

It will be the purpose of the committee above named not only to look after the immediate interests of Eastern Steamship Corporation bondholders, but also to prepare a plan for the reorganization of the whole business. The committee will invite deposits of bonds in order that all holders may share in the benefits of any plan so prepared. However, no deposit is not to be accepted of the terms of any plan of reorganization which may later be submitted. It is no secret that conferences have been held at general offices of such a plan, and that it is hoped one may be submitted at a very early date. When such a plan is submitted opportunity will be given to all bondholders to withdraw their bonds from the company, if they prefer, in complete accord with the terms thereof.

The problem before Eastern Steamship Corporation is essentially one of providing a proper working capital. While the progress of earnings in the Eastern Steamship lines has been fairly satisfactory over a series of years, a reversal of that rather steady current is apt to occur at any time, and to stand against any future trading in such a way it will be desirable to have the absolute fixed charges of the corporation cut down to the lowest point consistent with fair treatment of all interests.

Earnings of the Eastern Steamship business have been very satisfactory so far this year, as compared with what they were in the first quarter of 1914, the gain in net for the first quarter being well up toward $100,000. This decided gain cannot be kept up through the entire year, but is a result of very favorable weather conditions in February and the early part of March.

As compared with the most adverse weather conditions in the period of 1914. Moreover, under the receivership, expenditures in every direction are much less than they would normally be under a stockholders' management. That is, repairs and improvements, which a wise regard for the future would dictate, are, necessarily, under the management of the court, reduced to the lowest possible operation, consistent simply with safe operation. However, with anything like a normal business on the "down East" lines during the summer of 1915, the Eastern Steamship lines for the full year should present a most satisfactory result to all the varied interests.

From England to Russia.

Intercourse between Russia and England began in the middle of the sixteenth century by the due route that is still open, via the White sea. It was a hazardous and costly voyage, the London Chronicle observes. The crews of two of the three ships with which Richard Chancellor made his first trip in 1552 were frozen to death. Sir Hugh Willoughby among them. On his second venture, in 1556, Chancellor brought back with him a Russian ambassador, Oslip Neja. Two of the ships were never heard of again, and the Edward Bonaventura, after four months at sea, was wrecked on the Scottish coast. Chancellor, many of the crew and seven Russians perished, but Oslip Neja was among the survivors, and the English lords and merchants went out in state beyond Shoreditch to welcome this "duke of Muscovia."

Intercourse between Russia and England began in the middle of the sixteenth century by the due route that is still open, via the White sea. It was a hazardous and costly voyage, the London Chronicle observes. The crews of two of the three ships with which Richard Chancellor made his first trip in 1552 were frozen to death. Sir Hugh Willoughby among them. On his second venture, in 1556, Chancellor brought back with him a Russian ambassador, Oslip Neja. Two of the ships were never heard of again, and the Edward Bonaventura, after four months at sea, was wrecked on the Scottish coast. Chancellor, many of the crew and seven Russians perished, but Oslip Neja was among the survivors, and the English lords and merchants went out in state beyond Shoreditch to welcome this "duke of Muscovia."

Simmons; vice president, Mrs. W. O. Fuller; secretary, Mrs. C. S. Beverage; treasurer, Mrs. F. B. Millett; auditor, Miss N. T. Sleeper. During the past five years these women have raised, in addition to the regular annual budget of the church, a total of $6000. The supper was an excellent one, this feature being in charge of Mrs. R. S. Sherman assisted by girls of the society as housekeepers. The after entertainment, in charge of the girls of Miss Rose Prescott's class, consisted of "The Marie Mirror," capably costumed, with Miss Alice Erskine as readers, duets, piano and xylophone, Miss Marion Judkins and Avard Richan; and piano solos admirably played by Manu- al Cohen, a young man who displays unusual musical ability.

Congressman McCall was a guest during his stay in this city yesterday at Mrs. Georgia Berry's, Middle street. Mrs. Berry also had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Horton of Harrison and C. C. Auchincloss of New York. Others who came from away to attend the Littlefield funeral, and whose names do not appear in the report of the services were Mrs. W. A. Walker, Mrs. E. P. Walker and William Edmund Walker (Bowdoin 1918) of Castine; William S. Mitchell and mother of Boston, and Fred A. Hovey, formerly deputy collector of customs at Waldoboro.

Mrs. Maurice Wilson, who has been visiting her brother in Boston the past fortnight, has returned home.

R. H. Burpee opens his summer cottage at Crescent Beach today. His sister, Mrs. G. K. Stratton, will also spend the summer there.

Mrs. E. K. Leighton has gone to Boston to join Mr. Leighton in a trip to New York.

George L. Hall, who has been spending the winter at his home in this city, returned to North Scituate, Mass., Wednesday night. He was accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Ellen Hall, who will spend the summer there.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan F. Cobb leave this afternoon for Lewiston, where they will join friends for a trip to Gorham.

MRS. HISLER'S SENTENCE
In Lincoln county supreme court yesterday Mrs. Eugenia A. Hisler pleaded guilty to the charge of manslaughter after retracting her former plea on the murder charge, for the killing of her husband, Fred T. Hisler, at Somerville, Feb. 7, and was sentenced to serve not less than five nor more than ten years in State Prison.

ROCKLAND THEATRE
Nothing is more pleasing than to spend an afternoon or evening at a fine picture show. Today and tomorrow the management are offering a wonderful production, Beatrice Michelena, California's beautiful prima donna, in a stirring, gripping, powerful story of "The Days of '49," entitled "Salomy Jane," a motion picture masterpiece, founded on Bret Harte's famous story of the California Red Woods, in five absorbing reels. This production combines interest, artistry and beautiful scenery of generous abundance; followed by the serial of mystery, episode number 3 of "The Black Box." Friday night the "Black Box" coupons will be given away.

Coming Monday and Tuesday Jesse L. Lasky presents H. B. Warner in his original role in the thrilling drama, "The Ghost Breaker," in five acts of dramatic acting; and others—adv.

IN SPORTING CIRCLES

Camden High Comes Here Tomorrow—
Islanders Make Their Bow—A Little Basketball Protest.

Both games in the Knox-Waldo League were cancelled on account of the weather last Saturday, but the several managers are hoping for better luck tomorrow, when Camden High comes to the Broadway ground, and Vinalhaven plays in Thomaston.

The schedule is a poorly arranged one, in that it brings games at Rockland and Thomaston the same days. Both towns always draw well from each other, but do not have that privilege when the two diamonds are in use at the same time. This same mistake is made year after year, but the schedule makers never seem to profit by their error.

Camden and Rockland were both losers in the preliminary skirmish, and each will want to win tomorrow so as not to be at the bottom of the heap. As nearly as can be told the two teams are about equally strong—or weak. Vinalhaven will have a good opportunity to test its mettle in going against Thomaston. The Islanders have their eyes fixed on the pennant, and are not counting on losing many games this season.

WARREN

The damp, drizzly weather for a week past, with its rain, has filled the wells and moistened the ground and now everyone is wishing for fair weather and sunshine again. If its dry weather we complain—if its too moist, 'tis the same.

The Co-operative Tire

Goodyear has always built co-operative tires. Every saving has gone to the user. The more men bought the better we built them, and the lower we sold them.

That is why Goodyear has held top place, outselling any other tire.

3 Reductions

Note that in two years we made three big price reductions. The last—on February 1st—brought the total to 45 per cent.

Yet in costly ways these tires have been bettered. In no one iota were they ever skimmed.

Our Fortified Tire is still "On-Air" cured to save blow-outs. Yet that one extra cost us $450,000 yearly.

It still has our No-Rim-Cut feature. It has in each base 126 braided piano wires to make the tire secure. It embodies hundreds of rubber rivets, formed to combat loose trends.

Our All-Weather tread is still double-thick. It still has the sharp, tough, resistless grips.

Those extras—all exclusive to Goodyear—are all retained, despite our price reductions. And we still spend $160,000 yearly to discover new ways to better them.

Your Ally

In all these ways, Goodyear is your ally. You do injustice to yourself when you fail to secure this advantage. Never in tire history was such value given as you get in Goodyear tires today.

No smaller makers can ever give so much.

Any dealer will supply you. [237]

The system of school savings banks has been introduced in the common schools of Gardiner, becoming operative during the present spring term.

Ground was broken last week at Orono by Rev. J. M. Harrington for the new parochial school on the recently purchased Mayo N. The building will be 80x80 feet, modern in design and equipment.

The United States navy yard at Kittery, is to have a visit from the cruisers Tennessee and North Carolina, now in European waters, which will soon be relieved by the Chester and Des Moines.

A very decided drought is just now hanging over Dexter in the matter of "wet" goods. The order of Sheriff White that all liquors must be seized and labeled, regardless of whom addressed, has caused the Maine Central railroad in shipments into that town.

Bath has an interesting race for the postmaster's office and the outcome is being closely watched. The candidates are ex-Mayor George E. Hughes and Fred W. Hartnett. Postmaster E. W. Hyde's term of office will expire May 11 and an early appointment is expected.

A Dexter farmer, who is nearly 60 years of age took his first ride on a railroad train the other day. He has for many years lived within a quarter of a mile of the Maine Central railroad tracks—has heard the whistles of the trains day in and day out, but has never ridden in one.

A tribute to the memory of the late Mrs. Lillian M. Evans is to be erected in some prominent place in Portland in the shape of a reproduction of the drinking fountain in Chicago to the memory of the late Frances Willard. The expense will be met by voluntary contributions.

Mrs. Sarah E. Hatch of Portland, Friday celebrated her 99th birthday. She is the last person now living in Portland who recalls the visit to Portland in 1825 of Marquis de Lafayette, and she, with other little girls, was kissed by the famous general. She is in very good health. Her father, Capt. Joseph Andrew Crossman, served both in the Revolutionary war and in that of 1812.

Much interest is being felt all over the State in the building of the new road between Jackman and Rockwood. The road will open one of the finest sections of the State of Maine for scenic beauty, and will make a link in a tour lasting about three days in a tour that can be made anywhere in the world. At the session of the Legislature just passed, $22,500 was appropriated for the building of this road, which will be 30 miles in length. It will run across country for Rockwood, over the hills and through the valleys of the border lands of the State.

A valuable specimen has been presented to the State Museum by A. E. Lord of Pittsford, it being an ancient anchor which is assumed to be a relic of the time when Arnold's expedition was at Pittsford. It was found in the Kennebec river, opposite the site of Major Colburn's yard in Pittsford (where Arnold's batteries were built) by some men who were dragging a sturgeon net and drew it up from where it was embedded in the mud. The anchor is of iron, and its ring has rusted off. Its weight is 38 pounds, its length four feet and the width across its arms is 21 inches.

Not far years, say the Isaac Waltons, has there been such fishing at Swan lake as there is this season. Although the fishing is only begun some big catches have already been made. Many claim that the dam which was recently installed at the dam on the lower end of Swan lake, or Goose pond, as it was originally called, is responsible for the increase and size of the fish this year. Years past many of these big fish went down over the dam and many were destroyed by the mill wheels several miles below. Now, with the screen, the fish are kept in the

FOLEY'S KIDNEY PILLS

For Backache, Rheumatism and Bladder

AN UGLY ABSCESS

Caused Much Trouble, but was Healed by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Portsmouth, N. H., Feb. 16, 1915.—Mrs. Charles Beare, who lives at 45 Coffin's Court, in this city, makes this statement:

"The beginning of my trouble was a sore or abscess that gathered in the corner of my left eye. It discharged continuously for a year and eight months, and nothing seemed to heal it. I consulted eminent physicians, who said the eruption would never heal without a surgical operation. I was much rundown and dreaded to think of an operation.

"I remembered that four years before I had taken Hood's Sarsaparilla with benefit, and I decided to take it again. I seemed all worn out, and my blood was not right.

"After I had used four bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla the abscess had a more healthy appearance and the discharge was less. When I had taken seven bottles the sore had entirely disappeared, leaving only a slight scar. When I told the doctor Hood's Sarsaparilla had cured me he was dumbfounded, and said 'Hood's Sarsaparilla cured you, and I decided to take it again. I seemed all worn out, and my blood was not right.

"I had better appetite and was in better health in every way."

Remember to ask for Hood's Sarsaparilla and insist on having it.

pond with the result, many believe, that there will be better fishing than has been enjoyed for 10 or 15 years. Although nothing as yet has been reported for big catches at Georges lake, Liberty, some of the biggest fish ever caught in this vicinity have been taken from the Georges and the pond is a popular resort.

Two veterans of the European war have returned to Sanford. These are Joseph Gorman and William Cordon. They are Irishmen who left Sanford and enlisted in a Canadian regiment. They were sent to the trenches in Belgium and saw something of the fighting there. They are both home on sick leave. Gorman is suffering from a wound in the back which is often not complimentary to a soldier, but in this case the injury was received while the soldier was engaged in making a pot of tea over the camp fire. A piece of an exploding shell landed in the camp and a part of the metal hit him in the back. He was taken care of in a field hospital. Gorman has frost bitten feet. He, with other, was in the trenches. It was very cold, and the trenches had been captured from the Germans were very damp. He went to sleep on sand bags and when he awakened the water was up to his waist, and later his feet were frozen.

AUTOMOBILE REGISTRATION

Passed Ten Thousand Mark in Maine—Cardboard Plates Not Allowed.

The registration of automobiles by the Department of State had reached the number of 10,500 upon closing Saturday noon and all plates ordered had been sent out. The number of operating licenses issued is approximately 13,500. Secretary Bunker of the department of State says that the use of cardboard plates with penciled or painted numbers has caused all sorts of trouble and will not be allowed under any circumstances in the future.

May 1 was set for the last day upon which such privilege might be granted. Dealers have made use of these numbers in many instances and trouble has often arisen and Secretary Bunker now rules that the use of cardboard plates or any plates other than the official plates issued by the State will be neither authorized nor countenanced. The law providing for temporary license plates does not become effective until July and in the meantime strict enforcement of the letter of the law will be insisted upon by the department.

KNOX POMONA GRANGE

Sixty Patrons Braved Storm and Gale for the South Hope Session.

May 1st was the day set apart for Knox Pomona Grange to hold its regular session, and 60 of the Patrons, after providing themselves with rubber suits, cars and sails started from all points of the compass, for South Hope Grange hall. Arriving at their destination they were ready for work in the fifth degree while the rain came down in torrents and the wind blew a gale. But what a day for wind and weather, when the Patrons of South Hope had a good warm fire, and the smell of coffee and beans was coming from the kitchen? In the absence of the Master, H. H. Payson, the officer, W. A. Ayer, presided during the day. Past Master Warren Gardner conferred the degree upon a class of seven, and received one member in the proper form, by card.

At the close of the degree, dinner was served in the upper hall and the meeting was again called to order, with Brother Ayer in the chair. Many of the Patrons upon whom the lecturer depended for his program being absent, he made things lively during the noon hour hunting up new entertainment. A paper on "Strawberry Culture" was read by the lecturer and discussed by the various members, furnishing valuable information to those interested in that line of work. Mrs. Warren Gardner read a paper on "Grange Work," and also gave a recitation, "Our Absent Mother." Readings were given by Nina Bowley, Eva Taylor, Ida Watts and Clara Light, and a song by Mrs. Nancy Ayer, Inez Ayer and George Greiner. Mrs. Eva Taylor received many words of praise for her most excellent address of welcome to the Patrons.

Knox Pomona Grange has this year adopted a plan for remembering its seriously sick or aged members, and the committee in charge is faithfully performing its duty. Since this plan was adopted, Sister Martha Kellogg was the first to receive their little token of love, and during the long days and nights of suffering which followed, the little gift, for which she felt very grateful, helped her bear her suffering with patience and courage. Sister Kellogg was also remembered with cards from a great many of the sub-granges. Knox Pomona is talking about the trip to Vinland in June, and looking forward to it with a great deal of pleasure.

Maxwell Cabriolet

A All-weather body on the famous 1915 "Wonder Car" chassis. When closed, a handsome, snug coupe. When open, a racy roadster, as clean cut in appearance as any runabout at any price.

"Every Road is a Maxwell Road"

This car is an up-to-date, economical automobile for year-round use of one, two, or three passengers.

It has all the power—all the strength—all the endurance of the other Maxwell Models.

Wood Alcohol Dangerous.

The danger connected with the handling of wood alcohol and with working where even small quantities of the fumes of this liquid may be inhaled have been brought out prominently as the result of recent scientific investigations, which demonstrated that quantities of wood alcohol as small as .2 of 1 per cent in the inspired air may lead to the absorption of the product into the body to an injurious extent. With such quantities as this the absorption is slow, but eventually the body becomes "saturated" with it. The greatest danger in inhaling the fumes of wood alcohol is their effect on the optic nerve, which often results in total and incurable blindness.—Popular Mechanics.
